

Replicability of International Exchange Program

- The primary aim of this project is to achieve lasting and lifelong learning.
- Increased use of international teaching methodology.
- To overcome the Academic and Cultural barriers, Cultural ties are developed by fostering and developing Creative thinking, Analytical and Linguistic Skills.
- Equipping students with life skills to deal with the future challenges.
- Exchange programs to facilitate students with opportunities to study abroad.