

Scalability of International Exchange Program

- Continuity with all existing and new partnerships by breaking down the narrow domestic walls and creating the spirit of internationalism.
- The students of DPS Panipat city find placements in international universities and become ambassadors of the school in foreign lands to extend these International Exchange Programs further.
- Overwhelming consistent growth of international students and faculties in the school has taken the project to another level.
- The younger generation adapts the new culture in no time and thus become aware of International systems of education and remains at par with their counterparts.
- Transmission of Indian values with rest of the world.
