

COMMENDABLE SPECTACLE

DPS Panipat students participated in Oyster Model United Nations Conference'17 from 29th – 30th April 2017 in Jaipur, Rajasthan, India at Vivekanand Global University, Jagatpura, Jaipur. Out of 150 participants, 31 were from DPS Panipat. The topic focus was "Unite the Changing World". It saw a lot of brain-storming session revolving around the theme. The 'dipsites' exhibited finesse in deliberating their points and made a niche in the area of application leaving indelible impression on the audience. They elucidated their point with precision bearing in mind attention to detail, timeliness, accuracy and aims. It was challenging and at times got tense but altogether was incredibly interesting. They got the chance to speak with the delegates and advisory committee. Their brimming confidence with passion, amalgamated with teeming knowledge, made their say a feast to relish.

The whole DPS fraternity stood proud with special honours bestowed on the young ones. Kamal Batra was the Best Delegate. Ishaan Sharma and Gagan Gangwani got Special Mention and Tuhin, Tejas and Vishwas got Honourable Mention. Raghav Dua was the Vice Chairperson of Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC).

The Pro Vice Chairman, Mr. Amit Rana and the Principal, Ms. Archana Jain highly appreciated the achievers and congratulated them for their accolades.

Heartiest CONGRATULATIONSto all the prize winners!!
